

To fulfill the statutory order about End of life vehicles from April 1998, vehicles have to be drained before disposal or recycling and all supplies must be removed from the vehicle before storage or recovery.

The Welding Technologist Siegfried Huber, managing director of STH-Anlagenbau GmbH, has developed a mobile car depollution system for that.